Burrillville Democrats Endorse Town Council Candidates

Burrillville, RI – Members of the Burrillville Democratic Town Committee met at 7PM Thursday night at the Nasonville Fire Department to endorse for Town Council. Chaired by Stephen Mulcahey, the committee voted unanimously to endorse the following candidates:

Jim Alix- a retired school counselor (MSW). He and his wife, Kathy, a retired school teacher have been residents of Burrillville for over 30 years. Jim has been an active member of the Burrillville Parks and Rec program as well the Burrillville Extended Care Program.

Michael Dutilly- a career firefighter and union president of the Harrisville Fire Department. Mike is a lifelong resident of Burrillville and a graduate of Burrillville High School. Mike is married and has a newborn baby boy.

Bob Perreault- a multi-generational Burrillville resident. Bob is a retired Zambarano Hospital employee where he spent his career caring for patients. Bob was a Therapeutic Services provider and has a keen sense of empathy for our fellow residents at Zambarano Hospital.

At the same meeting, the Burrillville Democratic Town Committee gave its endorsement for reelection to State Senator Paul Fogarty and State Rep. Cale Keable.

Chairman Mulcahey stated the importance of electing these Democrats in the light of the Power Plant issue going on in the town. " In all these cases, we have candidates who are committed to opposing the proposed power plant. In addition, these candidates have the experience and capacity to govern past this one issue".
